Values

Our Values define our culture and guide us internally in our day-to-day work. Each Value is supported by examples of positive and negative behaviours. These are examples only and not an exhaustive list of supporting behaviours.

Quality - We strive for excellence in all that we do. For our Members and clients, we are a trusted, knowledgeable and responsive partner known for exceptional advice and service delivery.
Positive behaviour examples <ul style="list-style-type: none"> — Achieves high standards — Improves the way things are done — Work is accurate and timely — ‘Gets under the skin’ of issues and seeks ways to add value — Uses systems effectively e.g. CRM — Allocates resources appropriately towards achievement of the Institute’s objectives — Shows awareness of task interdependencies and monitors tasks to ensure optimal results 	Negative behaviour examples <ul style="list-style-type: none"> — Misses deadlines — Produces limited or poor quality work output — Work includes inaccuracies or errors — Unresponsive to requests or responses not timely — Provides only what is asked for, without considering requests within broader context — Uninterested in needs of others or improving service performance — Focuses on tasks in isolation, at the expense of other work
Collaboration - We work cooperatively with colleagues, clients and Members. Our teamwork goes beyond organisational and geographic boundaries to achieve exceptional results.
Positive behaviour examples <ul style="list-style-type: none"> — Proactively and genuinely collaborates with others as a normal way of working — Actively engages with others on their input — Considers a range of perspectives before reaching a conclusion — Approachable and shares information willingly — Actively participates in discussions and is appropriately assertive and sensitive in expressing own opinion — Communicates effectively via appropriate channels — Communicates appropriately for the audience and situation 	Negative behaviour examples <ul style="list-style-type: none"> — Works in isolation, in silos or competitively — Unwilling to collaborate or share information — Limited or no communication to manage expectations — Solicits input late, after a decision has been made or not at all — Feels threatened by those with greater or different knowledge or experience — Undervalues expertise of others — Communication is not tailored to the audience — Unable to convey complex information simply — Communication is ineffective or culturally inappropriate
Integrity - We hold ourselves and each other to the highest standards in all we do and say. Our actions and communications are Member and client-responsive, socially, environmentally and economically responsible, ethical and respectful of diversity.
Positive behaviour examples <ul style="list-style-type: none"> — Complies with Institute policies and procedures — Is honest and ethical — Respects backgrounds and expertise of others — Treats people fairly, equitably and respectfully — Leads by example – ‘walks the talk’ — Conveys difficult messages effectively and appropriately 	Negative behaviour examples <ul style="list-style-type: none"> — Takes risks without understanding or considering the impact — Blames or makes others responsible for a problem they should deal with themselves — Operates in a political and self-serving manner — Sees cost management as someone else’s responsibility — Avoids tough conversations — Tackles sensitive issues in a public forum where others can overhear — Spreads gossip and speaks unkindly about others
